Williston, N.D., (December 9, 2019) – On December 7, 2019, at approximately 6 am, the Northwest Crisis Negotiations Team and the Williams County SWAT Team were called to the 600th block of Main Street in Williston.

A 40-year-old male had barricaded himself inside his residence after assaulting his girlfriend. The girlfriend was not in the residence at the time of the barricade.

After approximately one hour, the male exited the residence and was taken into custody by the Williston Police Department.

The male is currently being held in the Williams County Correctional Center on the charge of Aggravated Assault-Domestic (C Felony).
