Grenora, N.D., (November 14, 2019) – On November 13, 2019, the Williams County Sheriff's Office was called to an address in Grenora for a report of a domestic violence situation.

Upon arrival it was discovered that the suspect had barricaded himself in the basement of his parent's home. The Northwest Crisis Negotiation Team and the Williams County SWAT Team were called to the scene to provide assistance.

After multiple attempts to contact the suspect, the SWAT Team entered the home and arrested Jeremy Garaas. Garaas has been charged with Domestic Violence – Simple Assault (B Misdemeanor), Interference with a Telephone During an Emergency Call (C Felony), Resisting Arrest (B Misdemeanor), and an unrelated Arrest Warrant.

Garaas is currently being held at the Williams County Correctional Center.
