Williams County COVID-19 building closure update: March 27, 2020

Williston, N.D., (March 27, 2020) – In a continued effort to protect employees and the public from possible exposure to COVID-19, Williams County buildings will remain closed until further notice. A status update will be provided at 12 pm on Friday, April 3, 2020.

To ensure the continuity of county government services, employees will remain working and will be able to assist citizens by phone or email. Phone numbers and email addresses can be found at williamsnd.com and are posted on building doors.

Limited court proceedings will continue in the Williams County Courthouse. The public will be able to enter the building and speak with Security for more information. Individuals are advised to call ahead to the Clerk of Court (701-774-4374) for District Court, Juvenile Court (701-774-4371) or to Municipal Court (701-577-9900) to verify court schedules.

The Williston DMV is only able to respond to citizens via phone or email. Governor Burgum has waived expiration dates for motor vehicle registrations from March 1, 2020 until the declared disaster has ended.

Although Williams County buildings are closed to the public, Boards and Commissions will strive to continue holding public meetings, but virtual participation is highly encouraged. Updates to meetings can be found at <https://www.williamsnd.com/Meetings>.
