Security Screening Comes to Williams County Memorial Courthouse

Williston, N.D., (March 22, 2019) – Beginning Monday, March 25, 2019, the Williams County Memorial Courthouse will require the general public to go through security screening when entering the building. Visitors will need to go through a metal detector and have their belongings scanned.

As a reminder, dangerous weapons, as defined in Century Code 62.1-02-05, are not permitted in the Courthouse.

Questions can be directed to the Williams County Sheriff's Office at 701-577-7700 or sheriff@co.williams.nd.us.
